

The French-American Foundation – France

In association with

la Chaire des Amériques de l'Université Paris1 Panthéon-Sorbonne

As part of the Jardin d'Acclimatation's month long celebrations, "Des Américains à Paris"

is pleased to welcome you to a
A round table discussion, in English:

“Sustainable Development in an Urban Environment: A New Beginning for the U.S.?”

with

Dale Medearis : Senior Environmental Planner, Northern Virginia Regional Commission (NVRC)

At the NVRC, Mr. Medearis directs international partnerships within the European Network of Metropolitan Areas and Regions (METREX).

After a long career, he left the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) in 2007. In April 2008, he created the first formal partnership within the energy and climate sectors between 40 large U.S. cities and the European network of METREX.

Anne de Pazzis : Sustainable Development & Public Affairs - Head of Department at SITA France

Wednesday, May 6, 2009
Theatre – Jardin d'Acclimatation
18h00 – 20h00

Please RSVP, to :

Hugues de Revel, Head of the Energy/Climate Change Program of the French-American Foundation – France

hugues.derevel@french-american.org, Tel: 01.45.77.31.73 fax: 01.45.77.40.71

Registration Form

---

First and Last Name.....

Position.....

Organization.....

Telephone.....

E-mail.....

will attend

will not attend